Village Community Centre, Chitwan

The British School has helped to set up a community library, the Village Community Centre, Bhandara, Chitwan. We have donated books, play-equipment and furniture to the Library and the Chitwan librarians visited TBS to liaise on ideas about supporting young readers. We hope to continue working with the library in the future and the whole community is already using the facility to inspire young learners with a love of reading and inquiry.