Dear Parents and Carers,

Update on Court Date

Following my letter in December regarding Matthew Smith's sentencing hearing, we have now been informed that he will not be in court until February.

We continue to maintain a link with the National Crime Agency who have been conducting the investigation. They have not given us any indication that the offences he has been charged with link in any way to our school or students. If you or your children would like additional support, we are available to help using the contact details below.
