

It is said that through the pages of great works of literature a person can travel the world without leaving their home. At TBS, the English department aims to inspire a love of learning about the world through a multitude of literary forms. Through an inspirational and varied range of literature students are provided with opportunities to make connections to the global community and develop the skills necessary to communicate with confidence and kindness as they step beyond the boundaries of school life.

Through studying English at TBS, students will:

- Connect what they read to events in the wider world.
- Be competent in their written and spoken communication.
- Make connections to other topic and subject areas through literature and language.
- Appreciate different perspectives and points of view.
